About House Church"

"This book has been written for those whom A.W. Tozer calls "the children of the burning heart"; those individuals who are seeking a deeper relationship with God and a more authentic experience of New Testament Church or "ekklesia". In a very real sense, simple house church is the pursuit of God in the company of friends who are sharing a common journey in the Kingdom of God. These are people who believe that genuine biblical faith and community are more than sermons, meetings, programs and endless activity. Their heart's desire is to share an authentic life in the Kingdom of God and to live it out in such a manner that others are touched by it and attracted to it Biblical, New Testament faith isn't about attending any form of Church. It's about being and making committed disciples of Jesus Christ, and about living an authentic life of obedience as we pursue our journey into the Kingdom of God. May your journey into the Kingdom of God lead you back to your own home, and to the Church which meets in your house."
